

Stephan Brodschöll

Partner

sbr@clp.no

+47 480 07 749

Stephan Brodschöll advises clients in the internet-, IT-, telecommunications-, technology- and media sector with an emphasis on intellectual property law, contract law, competition law, privacy law and regulatory law. Brodschöll has experience as general counsel of Opera Software and advises a number of Norwegian technology companies with an international focus. Brodschöll is also an experienced competition lawyer, and he has for many years worked with digitalization projects and with legal issues in relation to Artificial Intelligence and Big Data.

“The ‘solution-oriented’ and ‘pragmatic’ Stephan Brodschöll is the main contact for Intellectual property and TMT. ”
Legal 500

Practice areas

Retail

Technology/IPR

Background

Partner, Advokatfirmaet CLP DA (2009)
General Counsel, Opera Software ASA (2005-2009)
Senior Associate, Wikborg Rein (2003-2005)
Associate, Wikborg Rein (2001-2003)
Senior Executive Officer, Norwegian Competition Authority (1998-2000)

Education

Master of Laws (LL.M), Indiana University School of Law, Bloomington, Indiana, USA (2001)
Master of Law, University of Oslo, Norway (1998)
Course, Private International Law, The Hague Academy, The Hague, Netherlands (1998)
Special studies as ERASMUS-student, Universität Wien, Austria (1995-1996)